

2019–20 Ballantyne Visual Art Workshops

Emerging Artist (3rd–12th grade)

For emerging artists who seek a more in depth art experience, explore our Studio Art Experience. In Studio Art, students work with professional teaching artists in a variety of techniques and materials including paint, clay, watercolors, photography and much more! Students explore the design and creation process through hands on lessons that teach history, elements of art, genres and styles. Young artists are introduced to the creative process and begin to understand that art is limitless by exploring a challenging and fun curriculum developed by a variety of teaching artists, each expert in a specific medium. Students are exposed to visual art technique and vocabulary as they progress and prepare for winter and spring showcases.

Emerging Artist Workshops offer a variety of fun, casual visual art classes designed for beginning or returning students. Professional teaching artists assess students at the beginning of each workshop to tailor curriculum that will inspire and challenge the unique group of young artists in the workshops. Students develop visual art technique and vocabulary as they sample various concentrations. Options vary by season.
